In his words:

“ hi, I am volkan (short-name English walkie) I am the author of scripts such as "The Devil is Getting Married!", "Machine Gunfighter", and" Magician of Hitler" which were quarter-finalists in the prestigious script competition SCRIPTAPALOOZA SCREENPLAY COMPETITION 2021.

Usually, I write in drama, action, thriller, and romance. I am currently working as a co-writer in one of the drama and TV series serving on the digital platform, with tasks such as reviewing the prepared episodes, adding dialogue, and checking episodes.

I have always been fascinated by the conflictual environment of human relations and how they are written and turned into TV series or movies in a way that inspires people.

I believe that these types of TV series have a bigger and stronger impact on the lives of normal people. Because, not all of us are snipers or famous murder detectives, but everyone can have problems with his wife or their children and friends. Therefore, I would be pleased to work in these kinds of projects.
