BLACK SCREEN.

MR. STARGON (V.O.)
Long ago, the universe was a chaotic and hostile place.

On the black backdrop, numerous white silhouettes of alien species and ships appear, fighting each other.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
Beings from all over the cosmos were constantly at war, fighting and killing each other! But in those wars, it was always the innocent beings who took the biggest toll.

We then see the silhouettes of innocent alien animals and primitive intelligent aliens lying dead. Some have spears or axes in them, where others have been blown apart or shot by alien technology.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
Greatly disturbed by this loss of innocent life, many aliens decided to take it upon themselves to go and defend the planets, moons, and other places with innocent creatures on them from those who would cause them harm.

We see the silhouettes of some aliens with sad expressions, pitying the innocents that were killed, before going off and standing atop silhouettes of different planets.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
As time went on, more and more aliens began to defend planets and their lifeforms, and less and less aliens continued to engage in war.

We see a great abundance of silhouettes with aliens standing atop planets appear on the screen, before finally stopping on one with a father alien with his child alien atop their planet.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
Despite this, the lives on these planets still needed protection - someone to look over them. And the original defenders of the planets were getting on in years.

(MORE)

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
So the defenders passed on the responsibility of ruling and protecting the planet to their firstborn.

We see the father alien kneel down, and put his hand on the child alien's shoulder, before fading away.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
And them to their firstborn. And them to their firstborn.

We see this cycle continue with the alien children growing up, and doing the same action before fading away.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
The generations passed. The system: perfected. Signed deeds were put into place to ensue that those who ruled planets could not have the it taken away from them.

We see a large silhouette of a signed deed.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
And a school was created as well.

We see the silhouette of the Space School.

MR. STARGON (V.O.) (CONT'D)
A school to teach the next generations from all over the universe how to rule their planets and protect their lifeforms. And the name of this school? "Space School."

We then see the "SPACE SCHOOL" logo appear on the screen as Mr. Stargon says the words "Space School".

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

Mr. Stargon snaps shut the book he is reading from called
"SPACE SCHOOL: A HISTORY."

MR. STARGON
And okay! There you have it! Any questions?

All eight of the students in the classroom look back at Stargon either bored, confused, or sleepy. JUPITER, who is asleep, with his head resting on his hand, has it slip, causing him to bang his head on the table.

MR. STARGON (CONT'D)
No questions? Alrighty then-!

MERCURY (O.S.)
I have a question, sir.

We FREEZE FRAME on Mercury as his NAME and some INFORMATION about him is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

MERCURY (CONT'D)
Why...Are we already doing history on the first day? I mean, shouldn't we all be, like, getting to know each other first, or something?

MR. STARGON
Well I figured that since you all literally grew up right next to each other, and have been living as neighbors for 16,000,000 years, you all already knew one another pretty well, soooo....

VENUS
But, like, you don't know anything about us yet, though!

We FREEZE FRAME on Venus as her NAME and some INFORMATION about her is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

VENUS (CONT'D)
For instance, I'm Venus! I'm like, super rich, and even more hot! I have the best clothes, the best makeup, the best body! Ha! I've got the best everything! Which is something that none of these other freaks in this class could ever get close to having! I also-!

EARTH (O.S.)
Ha! Told you.

In the row behind Venus, MARS hand EARTH some cash.)

MARS
(Jokingly)
Oh, screw you, dude!

Venus stands up and turns around angrily to face Mars and Earth.

VENUS

Hey! What the actual hell?! You guys interrupted me!

MERCURY

(Sarcastically)
Oh dear. What a tragedy.

EARTH

Actually...

We FREEZE FRAME on Earth as his NAME and some INFORMATION about him is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

EARTH (CONT'D)

...We were betting on how long you'd last before going full spoiled bratty rich girl mode on the class. Mars thought you'd make it 'till lunch. I didn't.

Venus angrily turns her attention towards Mars. She clenches her fists angrily.

VENUS

Oh, Mars, you bitch!

MARS

Hey!

We FREEZE FRAME on Mars as her NAME and some INFORMATION about her is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

MARS (CONT'D)

What are ya getting mad at just me for?! Both me and Earth were the ones betting on you!

VENUS

Yeah, but only because you forced poor Earthy to against his will!
The poor baby!

Venus grabs Earth, making a scene of trying to hug him protectively.

EARTH

Woah! Hey!

Mars angrily gets up, and grabs Earth's arm, trying to pull him away from Venus.

MARS

You let go of him, you stupid, diva-fied douche bag! Right now!

Mr. Stargon looks, unamused, at Mars and Venus, as they continue to fight over Earth.

VENUS (V.O.)

No, you let go of him, you ugly freak!

MARS (V.O.)

Freak?! Oh ho ho! The only freak around here is you!

MR. STARGON

Can I get back to my lesson now, or do I have to wait until you guys finish up...whatever this is?

JUPITER (V.O.)

Mr. Stargon, I have a question!

Jupiter raises his hand. Mr. Stargon looks back at him suspiciously.

MR. STARGON

Does it have to do with the class, or are you also gonna ask why we didn't play some silly "two-truths-and-a-lie" game to get to know the other kids here?

JUPITER

It has to do with the class!

MR. STARGON

Okay, then go ahead.

JUPITER

Okay!

We FREEZE FRAME on Jupiter as his NAME and some INFORMATION about him is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

JUPITER (CONT'D)

Why am I the only one sitting on this side of the room?

The camera zooms out to show that Jupiter is indeed the only one sitting on the left side of the room, while everyone else is sitting on the right. We focus back in on Jupiter again.

JUPITER (CONT'D)

Everyone else is sitting on that side of the room. But I'm the only one sitting on this side!

MR. STARGON

(Sarcastically)

It's because you have no friends.

(Irritated)

My God, your parents weren't this stupid when I taught them! So why are you guys like this?!

SATURN (O.S.)

I have a question!

Saturn raises her hand. Mr. Stargon tries his best to control his growing anger/irritation.

MR. STARGON

Yes?

Saturn is about to ask her question when we FREEZE FRAME on Saturn as her NAME and some INFORMATION about her is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

SATURN

I forgot.

MR. STARGON

What?! What's the matter with you?! You think you're being funny, or something?! Well, guess what?! I've got news for you! You're not!

URANUS (O.S.)

Uh, sir?

We FREEZE FRAME on Uranus and Neptune as their NAMES and some INFORMATION about them is shown on the righthand side of the screen. We then resume.

URANUS (CONT'D)

She's, uh, not trying to be funny.

NEPTUNE

Yeah. She's just a bit...

Neptune searches for the correct word.

URANUS

...Special.

Saturn then raises her fists happily into the air.

SATURN
Woo-hoo! I'm special!!!

Neptune peeks out from behind Saturn.

NEPTUNE
Very special.

MR. STARGON
Mmm-hmmm. So I've got a classroom full of know-it-alls, jerks, and morons this year. Wonderful.

Mr. Stargon sighs.

MR. STARGON (CONT'D)
At least I don't got any psychopaths.

Suddenly, the classroom doors are KICKED OPEN, revealing
KARN.

KARN
Ah-ha-ha!

MR. STARGON
Spoke to soon.

KARN
Greetings, people of the Sol System classroom! I am Karn! And I am here to take back what is rightfully mine!

We FREEZE FRAME on Karn as his NAME and some false INFORMATION about him is shown on the righthand side of the screen. The information shown is belittling him. We then resume.

MR. STARGON
Karn, goddammit! What the hell are you doing here?!

Mars points back to Karn with her thumb.

MARS
Wait, you know this guy?

MR. STARGON
Yes. He's an annoying little pest who is not supposed to be here at this school! Get out, Karn!

Karn begins walking down the stairs of the room towards Stargon.

KARN

Get out? Oh, no, no, no, no, no.
Not until I get what I came here for, Stargon! For what is mine!

Karn comes face to face with Mr. Stargon.

EARTH

Uhhh, Mr. Stargon? What's he talking about?

KARN

What am I talking about?! Ha! Ha!
Ha!

Karn goes over, and jumps up onto the desk in front of Earth and Mars.

KARN (CONT'D)

What I'm talking about, my dear boy, is a planet of my own to rule!
And not just any planet, but a planet in your solar system!

EARTH

Our solar system? Why?

KARN

Because it's what is rightfully mine! My God, have you idiots even been listening to me?!

Mercury turns around in his chair to face Karn.

MERCURY

You can't have a planet in our solar system, though, pal. All the planets have already been taken.

KARN hops down the tables over to Mercury's table, and bends down to look at him intimidatingly. Mercury looks back at Karn, unimpressed.

KARN

Well that is why I'll just be taking one from one of you!

MERCURY

And you're gonna do that how? We have deeds which say that we own our planets. Not that Karn owns our planets. Us!

KARN

Oh, but they won't say that for much longer, though. You see, I've been around long enough to know that each time a new generation of kids comes to Space School, they have to bring their deed with them to show they in fact the next ones in line to rule over their planet. The teacher then collects the deeds, and sends them down into a large filing room down in the school's basement where it is then checked for authenticity, and copied for record keeping reasons. Now, I know where this filing room is, but what I don't know is the code to get into it.

Karn then hops of the table, and walks over to Stargon.

KARN (CONT'D)

So what I intend to do is use Stargon here to put in the code for me, then have him lead me to where your guys' deeds are being stored in order to claim one of the deeds for my own, and by extension, one of your planets!

MR. STARGON

You intend to use me, huh? How, Karn? What are you gonna do? Kidnap me?

KARN

That was actually the plan, yes-!

Mr. Stargon then grabs Karn by the throat, and holds him up to his face.

MR. STARGON

Well, guess what? It's actually gonna be me who kidnaps you. And do you know where I'm taking you? To a shuttle going on a one way trip OFF OF THE SCHOOL GROUNDS!

Mr. Stargon begins walking up the stairs towards the doors, still holding Karn. Karn STRUGGLES and SQUIRMS, trying to escape Mr. Stargon's grasp.

KARN

Let me, go, you idiot! I will get a planet! I deserve one more than anyone! Goddammit, release me!

MR. STARGON

(Speaking to the Students)

Alright, guys, I'm gonna be gone for a little while while I go and take this bastard off the premises. I know lunch is coming up soon, so if the bell rings before I'm back, you can go to eat.

Mr. Stargon leaves the room. It is SILENT for a moment as all the students sit there, trying to process everything that just happened. Suddenly, the LUNCH BELL rings. A second later, Saturn gets up and runs happily out of the room.

SATURN

Yayyy! Lunch!

INT. HALLWAY - DAY

The hallway is full of various alien students talking, getting things from their lockers, or just walking. The Sol System classroom students walk down the hall in three separate groups. Saturn is first, running happily down the hall, then off screen, with Uranus and Neptune running after her, concerned she'll get herself into some sort of trouble.

URANUS

Saturn! Wait up!

Second is Venus texting on her phone with Earth and Mars walking together a little ways behind her.

MARS

What the hell was up with that Karn guy, huh?

EARTH

I know! He just bursts in and thinks he can take one of our planets from us?

MARS

It's frickin' crazy, man!

Venus, Earth, and Mars walk off screen. Thirdly, Jupiter and Mercury walk down the hall together.

JUPITER

Please Merc! I'm not asking for that much! Just a little bit!

MERCURY

Not gonna happen, Jupiter.

JUPITER

Please!

Mercury stops walking, and turns around to face Jupiter.

MERCURY

No! It's not my fault that you forgot to pack a lunch today! If you're that hungry, go buy something from the cafeteria! But I am not giving you any of my stuff!

JUPITER

Awww, but Mercccc...!

Jupiter then notices a trash can behind him.

JUPITER (CONT'D)

Oooh! Crap! Hold on! Idea! Wait here!

Jupiter runs over to the trashcan, and begins digging through it. Mercury goes up to him.

MERCURY

Okay, what are you doing?

JUPITER

Looking for food. Someone's bound to have thrown some of their lunch away, and one I find it, I'll have something to eat.

MERCURY

My God, you are disgusting.

JUPITER

Hey! Just remember that all this could've been avoided if you had given me some of your-augh!

While digging through the trash, Jupiter falls into the can. Mercury goes over and looks down at Jupiter. Jupiter looks up at him from inside the trashcan.

JUPITER (CONT'D)

I fell in.

Jupiter then looks around, before raising up his arms to Mercury to help him out.

JUPITER (CONT'D)

Uppies, please!

Mercury raises an eyebrow at Jupiter.

INT. QUIET HALLWAY-SHUTTLE DOCKING AREA - DAY

Mr. Stargon walks with Karn to the end of the hallway where there is a door that reads "SHUTTLE DOCKING" on it.

MR. STARGON

Well, here we are, Karn. You were a pain in the ass today, as always, but, damn! I didn't think you'd go so far as to try and steal one of the others plants!

KARN

I deserve to have one of their planets, Stargon!

MR. STARGON

So you keep saying.

KARN

Oh, you know damn well that I do!

Karn then slowly begins to bring a ray gun out from his pocket.

KARN (CONT'D)

And I'll do anything to get one...!

KARN takes out his gun, and aims it at Mr. Stargon.

MR. STARGON

Hey! What the-?! Have you had that this whole time?!

KARN

Yeah. I told you I was gonna kidnap you, Stargon. But it would've been pretty stupid to try and do so in that classroom where eight other people would be able to stop me! So I let myself get captured by you!

(MORE)

KARN (CONT'D)

Cause now, there's nobody else around! Nobody who could try and help you! So march, old man! You're taking me to that filing room, and helping me find one of your precious students deeds for me to steal!

Mr. Stargon glares at Karn, but he knows that Karn has the upper hand, and cannot do anything about it.

INT. QUIET HALLWAY - DAY

Mars and Earth walk down a quiet part of the hallway, where no students are around. Mars goes over to her locker.

MARS

Okay, let me just get a few things from my locker, and then we can go to lunch.

EARTH

Okay. Hurry up, though! I'm starving!

Mars looks back at Earth while taking out two books from her locker.

MARS

(Jokingly)

Oh, don't be such a pussy!

Mars shuts her locker, revealing Venus to be standing there behind it on her phone, scaring Mars.

MARS (CONT'D)

Aaaah! What the hell?! Venus?! What are you doing here?!

VENUS

Uh, Getting my phone from my locker, duh! What does it look like I'm doing, loser?

EARTH

Uhm, but you already have your phone right there...

Venus opens her locker, which is right next to MARS's.

VENUS

(Flirtingly)

No, silly! My other phone!

Venus switches out her phone with a new phone from her locker, and closes her locker door.

MARS

Of course you have two phones.
Spoiled little brat.

VENUS

Just because your family can't afford the best, doesn't mean you have to take it out on me.

Mars balls her fists angrily, before GRABBING Venus by her shirt.

MARS

Now you listen here, micro tits-!

VENUS

Aaaah! Earthie! Help me! She's attacking me!

SATURN (O.S.)

Welllll, you did start it.

Mars and Venus look over to see Saturn standing there, swaying innocently back and forth on her heels.

EARTH

What the-? Saturn? What are you doing here? Why aren't you at lunch?

SATURN

Oh! Funny story! So, I was on my way to the cafeteria, but then...I got lost.

Earth, Mars, and Venus all stare at Saturn as she continues to sway. Mars then lets go of Venus's shirt, who HUFFS angrily at her. Saturn then speaks up, pointing at something down a nearby hall.

SATURN (CONT'D)

Hey, look! Mr. Stargon!

We see Karn leading Mr. Stargon at gunpoint down a hallway.

EARTH

Oh, crap! Mr. Stargon!

MARS

It's that Karn guy! He's taken him hostage! We've gotta help him!

EARTH

Agreed! C'mon, guys, let's go!

Earth, Mars, and Saturn begin sneaking down the hallway after Karn and Mr. Stargon.

VENUS

What?! But, like, what about lunch?!

Venus worriedly looks around, scared to follow after them, before finally doing it.

VENUS (CONT'D)

Ughhhhh! Guys, wait up!

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

Jupiter, Uranus, Neptune, and Mercury sit in the classroom, waiting for Stargon and the others to return. Jupiter is eating a dirty sandwich he found in the trashcan. The bell indicating the end of lunch then rings.

JUPITER

So, uhhh... Where is everybody?

URANUS

I don't know. We couldn't find Saturn all lunch, either. We didn't worry about it though, because the parental tracker we set up on her phone so she doesn't get lost just said she was in a hallway, but now, since she's not here, I am getting kinda worried! We should call her. Make sure she's alright!

Uranus begins taking out his phone.

NEPTUNE

Yeah. Maybe she knows where the others are, too.

Uranus begins calling Saturn. Jupiter and Mercury gather around Uranus and Neptune as they call her. Saturn picks up.

NEPTUNE (CONT'D)

Saturn! Thank God! Where are you?

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Venus, Earth, Mars, and Saturn are in the entrance to the filing room, a dark labyrinth of futuristic filing cabinets.

SATURN

(Singing)

We! Are! On! An! Ad-ven-ture!

Earth takes the phone from Saturn, causing her to pout angrily at him.

EARTH

Uranus! No! We're in the filing room! That guy Karn! He kidnapped Stargon and had him bypass the room's code and is now taking him to steal one of our deeds!

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

The group is still crowded around Uranus who puts the phone on speaker, and sets it down on the table for the others to hear.

URANUS

Wait, what?! Karn took Stargon to the filing room?!

NEPTUNE

And you guys are following them?!

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Mars grabs Earth's arm, and pulls it over to her, speaking into the phone.

MARS

Well, we were.

Mars looks out into the vast dark maze ahead of them.

MARS (CONT'D)

Kinda lost them though. And this filing room is huuuge! Don't know how we'll find 'em now!

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

Jupiter speaks up.

JUPITER

Oh, shit. That's not good!

Jupiter turns to Mercury, and puts his hands on his shoulders, looking him seriously and sadly in the eye.

JUPITER (CONT'D)

Mercury, if Karn steals one of our planets... I hope it's yours.

Mercury brushes Jupiter's hands off of him.

MERCURY

What the hell, man?!

Mercury then talks into the phone.

MERCURY (CONT'D)

Listen, guys! I might know of a way to help you find Stargon and Karn again! Uranus! You said you put a tracker on Saturn's phone, yes?

URANUS

Yeah, I-

MERCURY

Open it up!

URANUS opens a tracker app on his phone. It shows a birds eye view of a blue dot that is Saturn inside the filing room.

MERCURY (CONT'D)

Okay! Now turn on the threat tracker!

Uranus presses some buttons in the app's menus, and three red dots appear around the blue dot. Further away from the four dots, and moving, are two other red dots. Mercury points at the four dots.

MERCURY (CONT'D)

Alright! This dot is Saturn! And these thee dots are the heat signatures for Earth, Venus and Mars! Which means that these ones are Karn and Stargon!

Mercury moves his finger to point at the two moving dots. Mercury then speaks into the phone again.

MERCURY (CONT'D)

We've got eyes on Karn and Stargon for you, guys!

(MORE)

MERCURY (CONT'D)

We'll tell you which way to go to catch up with them! You just follow our directions, got it?

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Earth replies to Mercury.

EARTH

Yeah, got it.

MERCURY

Good. Now, first go left.

Saturn grabs the phone from Earth.

SATURN

Which way's left?

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

Uranus speaks into the phone.

URANUS

Okay, so, Saturn, to figure that out, stick out your thumb and index finger on both hands. Then which ever one makes an "L" shape, that way's left. Which one's making the "L" shape?

SATURN (V.O.)

They both are.

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Saturn has both her hands held out like Uranus told her to do. The others are looking at her, annoyed.

SATURN

One's just backwards.

There is a brief silence before Mercury speaks through the phone.

MERCURY (V.O.)

Could somebody with an IQ higher than two take back the phone, please?

Earth grabs the phone from Saturn.

EARTH

I got it. So you said go left, right?

MERCURY (V.O.)

Yeah, left.

EARTH, MARS, VENUS, and SATURN begin walking off into the maze of the filing room. Upon reaching a turn, Mercury speaks up again.

MERCURY (V.O.) (CONT'D)

Okay, now go right.

The group takes a right, disappearing into the maze.

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Karn and Mr. Stargon have reached a table with with some small filing cabinets on it. Karn opens one of the filing cabinets, and begins searching through it for the deeds while monologuing.

KARN

Ahahahahaha! At last! The deeds to the planets are finally within my grasp!

Karn takes out some of the deeds, and begins looking through them.

KARN (CONT'D)

Now, which planet should I steal?
Mars? Too dusty. Saturn? What the hell's even on Saturn? Nothing that's what. It's just gas.
Jupiter? Well, it is the biggest planet in the solar system, so maybe...

Behind Karn, Earth, Mars, Saturn, and Venus arrive, ready to fight Karn if need be.

EARTH

Karn! Stop this! Right now!

Karn turns around to face Earth and the others.

KARN

(Mockingly)

Oh, I am so sorry! You should've told me to stop earlier!

(MORE)

KARN (CONT'D)

If I had known, I wouldn't have kidnapped your teacher and tried to steal your deeds!

(Normally)

Ha! Oh my God, what?! Did you really think I'd stop what I was doing just because you told me to?! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! What are you, stupid?!

Saturn points at Earth and laughs, before Mars smacks her on the back of her head, causing her to stop.

SATURN

Owww...!

Karn holds up the deeds, and shows them to Earth and the others.

KARN

It's over, morons! I've got your deeds! Your plants are mine! Y'know, I think I'll steal yours, Earth! All those human subjects to rule over! Could be fun!

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

Mercury, Jupiter, Uranus, and Neptune are still listening to everything that's going on via the phone.

JUPITER

Oh, whew. He's stealing Earth's planet. That's good for you, Mercury.

Jupiter pats Mercury reassuringly on the shoulder, who shakes his head in embarrassment for Jupiter in response.

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Earth, angry, begins walking towards Karn, fists bared.

EARTH

Oh, you're not getting anywhere near my planet, you bitch!

Earth swings a punch at Karn, which he dodges. Karn fires his ray gun at Earth, but misses.

KARN

You fool! I have a ray gun! You really thing you can take me?!

Earth then punches Karn in the face.

KARN (CONT'D)

Ow! Okay, maybe you can take me a little. Now die, jerkwad!

Karn shoots his ray gun at Earth again, but Earth gets out of the way in time.

KARN (CONT'D)

Oh, quit moving!

Mars then charges at Karn, yelling angerly, and punching him, causing him to TWIRL AROUND, before regaining his balance.

KARN (CONT'D)

Gah! Double teaming?! Seriously?!

Mars swings some punches at Karn, who dodges them, before hissing at Mars, and grabbing her by her shirt, and pulling her close to him, aiming his gun right under her chin. Mars struggles, trying to escape.

MARS

Ugh! Damn you!

Karn smiles evilly at Mars as he prepares to pull the trigger.

KARN

(Evilly)

Sorry, sweetie!

Suddenly, a camera flashes from off screen, temporarily blinding Karn, and causing him to let go of Mars.

KARN (CONT'D)

Aaaah! My eyes!

We see Venus with her phone out, having just taken a picture of Karn, the flash causing his blindness.

VENUS

Yep! That's, like, definitely going in my burn book!

As Karn recovers from his blindness, Earth punches Karn again, causing him to stagger a bit over towards Mars, who punches him again.

Saturn rocks innocently back and forth on her heels as the sounds of punching and fighting is heard off screen.

SATURN
I'm helping!

Karn then punches Earth twice in the face, causing his nose to start bleeding. He then aims his gun at him again, but Earth grabs Karn, and slams his elbow into his back. Karn wheezes, before regaining his breath to mock Earth.

KARN
You call that breaking a spine?!

INT. SOL SYSTEM CLASSROOM - DAY

Mercury, Jupiter, Uranus, and Neptune are listening to the fight over the phone.

KARN (V.O.)
You Sol System sissies wouldn't know how to break a spine if-!

(A loud crunching sound is heard through the phone, much to the horror of the listeners.)

KARN
-Aaaaah, my spine!

Uranus then presses the hang up button as all the listeners stare in shocked horror.

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

Karn, his lip now bleeding, has one hand to his back, and slowly raises the hand with his gun and Earth, Mars, Venus, and Saturn as they prepare to attack Karn again.

KARN (Voice dripping with hatred)
I've had enough of this nonsense!
You goddamn kids will die, right...Now...!

Karn pulls the trigger, but nothing happens.

KARN (CONT'D)
What the-?!

Karn continues to try and pull the trigger again and again, but still nothing shoots out from the gun.

KARN (CONT'D)
 Why-Why won't it work?!

Karn looks at the gun, only to read a message on a small screen on the side of it that reads: "OUT OF POWER."

KARN (CONT'D)
 Out of power?! Oh, are you freakin' kidding me?! All that just for it to end like-like this?!

Mr. Stargon walks over to Karn.

MR. STARGON
 (Sarcastically)
 Aw, damn. Sucks, doesn't it?

Mr. Stargon then punches Karn, knocking him out.

INT. QUIET HALLWAY-SHUTTLE DOCKING AREA - DAY

Mr. Stargon, Earth, Mars, Venus, and Saturn are at the "SHUTTLE DOCKING" door. Mr. Stargon is holding and unconscious Karn. The sound of a shuttle arriving is heard, and the door opens.

MR. STARGON
 Welp. In ya go, Karn.

Mr. Stargon tosses Karn through the door, and into the docked shuttle. Karn regains consciousness, and realizes, to his horror, where he is.

KARN
 Huh? Oh, no! No!

Karn runs towards Stargon and the others, but the door to the shuttle, and the docking door closes, trapping him inside the shuttle. Mr. Stargon and the others stare at Karn with a mix of annoyance and anger (with the exception of Saturn who just stares happily at him) as the shuttle prepares to undock.

KARN (CONT'D)
 (From through the doors)
 Oh, you kids think you're so smart!
 Well, mark my words! I'll be back!
 I will! And I'll get my planet! You haven't seen the last of Karn!

The shuttle undocks, taking Karn away from the school. After its gone, Mr. Stargon, and the others begin walking down the hall back towards the Sol System classroom.

MR. STARGON

Okay, let's get back to class.

VENUS

Yes, please. Ugh, that guy was so annoying! Like, what the actual hell!

MARS

(To Earth)

He got you in the nose pretty good, bro. Are you okay?

EARTH

What? Yeah. It's nothing. Just a nosebleed. I get them all the time.

SATURN

I like the part where I did nothing.

FADE TO BLACK.

INT. FILING ROOM - DAY

The camera travels through some of the turns in the filing room, before halting at a big metal door that reads: "CLASSIFIED." The door opens, and the camera travels inside, revealing more filing cabinets in there. It goes to one cabinet in the back of the room, which opens. We focus on a file that reads: "EX-RULERS" on it. One paper in the file is sticking out among the rest that reads: "KARN." We fade, with the "Karn file" staying visible for a moment longer than all the others, with Karn's name being the last thing to fade.

FADE TO BLACK.

THE END.
